Orientation

Back in the old days at Yangjilu, a village existed between drabness and upheaval. A small village that the size of it was just like a castell in the fairy tales. It was a standard village, a minimum and reclusive people that always wore those long Chinese dresses with blue eyes white dragon as the motif. People believed that this village was built by a man called 'Zang Ji' that was known as a great hero from above or under and being given a symbol for him as the blue eyes white dragon because of his respect, politeness, and discipline. So the people of it had a high motivation of respect, politeness, and discipline in order to become just like Zang ji. That was also why this village has the name "Yangjilu" with "Jilu" has the meaning of "discipline", and also the buildings in this village always had the dragon motif.

setting

In all of the discipline people that lived there, there was some people that didn't very like on how the way things did in the village. Quite, discipline, and nothing big for sure. One of that people was called Jack Zao. Why in this Chinese village this guy name was an outside name? you will know it later on. Jack hated almost all the usual things to do in this village. He preferred to do what he believed and what motivated him.

Main
introduced

In his childhood, he was an active and curios child. One day, in the forest near their village, jack and his friends was playing hide and seek. The sun was shining the forest, Jack wanted to hide deep in the forest. With his bravery, he went into the deep. As long as he walked the forest was getting darker. "Perfect" he said as he will not be found. Then, he saw a big wooden gate. It was so big about 6 meters. Jack was not curious of what inside, his curious was at a small shelter next to the gate. So he entered it. The shelter was clean, just like somebody used it. Not right not left was full of books. Jack tried to read with a half used candle. He got nothing, nothing he can read. As the books were filled with such as weird language, just like a young child's letter but of unknown words.

Jack kept searching for something until he found a book without title on a dusty table. It was a story picture book, it told that there was a warrior. The warrior was so brave, powerful, and filled with determination. He wield a long thin sword with blue light around. His enemy was full of great people of noble. But inside their nice face, they only seek power, the power that will control the world. The power with purple as its color. Unfortunately, the power needed a combine between the blue power and the yellow power. The nobles already had a wand made of crystal with yellow spark around it, that wand was very powerful, may be above the sword that the warrior had. As the nobles wanted the true power, they seek the warrior. Fortunately, the warrior knew this already. So he hid in a forest. In that forest, he built a small village to live. Everything in the village, he built by himself. But it cannot hold him forever, the nobles found his places. The warrior knew this and he hid the sword in one of the buildings that he built. That building has his name carved on a fireplace, and the war was broken. With full of determination, the warrior was beating them continuously. But, a man can't stand alone. As the nobles kept on coming, the warrior became weaker. And, the warrior died in the hand of Mig... the paper was ripped at the last page. Jack never knew who was the warrior and the nobles.

The purple candle that Jack used to read started to run out. The fire of it suddenly turn into a light purple. The arounds slowly turned into a cold places like the candle had no warm effect. The book around were shaking a mist showed up. Jack can felt the fear he had, the hair on his body started to rise. And all of the sudden, he saw a child. The child was black, nothing he can saw, the only thing that he remembered was child's hair style, a wavy short hair. Then, everything went black.

Jack opened his eyes, seeing his big worker hand and realizing, “It was just a dream” he thought.

Orientation

“Jack! Get up now! We will be late and I have no option but reduce your training time.” Old man said, well that old man was Jack’s father. Zang III Zhao, he was known as the head of farmer in the village. Beside that, he was also Jack’s master, master in Martial art. Jack loved to learn martial art as he took what his family inherits to him.

“Just a little bit longer! Why we must meet those rich people? Such boring” Jack answered.

While he continuing his sleep, sounds kept coming from the bottom. The sounds of two old feet smashing with the floor. The sound was getting louder, like that guy was walking up a stair. Suddenly, something grabbed Jack’s foot. Then Jack flew away till the bottom floor. That was just how Jack got up almost everyday.

Complication

Lately, Jack and his father arrived at their destination. It was a modern house, the biggest house in Yangjilu. Because it was head village’s house or known as Mighthand family. The shape was classic, full with white pillars all the way to the corners. It had about five floor, with big glasses every floor. Jack’s father knocked the door, door that had about 2 floor height. That door had different symbol on it. It was a head of a lion. Jack suddenly had a flash about his childhood. Yes, he had seen that symbol somewhere.

Minor character introduced

The door was opened, an old man showed up with such an expensive clothes. But he was just a house keeper.

“Sir Zhao?” asked him.

“Yes!” confidently answered by Jack’s father.

Jack and his father were guided to the main room. All the way to the main room, it was full of paintings and symbol. The symbol of a lion almost everywhere. Jack seemed to remember something, but he can’t quite did it.

They arrived at the main room, long enough. On the other side of the room, there was the head family, Mister James Mighhand. He was known as a great man in this village, a wise, discipline, and all that sort of that good things. On the other hand, a sound came out.

Complication

“So this is my beloved guest, Sir Zhao I recall.” Said the teenage, named Viktor Mighthand. He was James’ son, he was known as a very good discipline person that everyone put honour on him, except Jack.

“Yes, what do you want?” answered Jack rudely. As he said that, his father slapped him on his head.

“Don’t say that Jack. I have a talks with Mr James, what do you want to do Jack?” asked Jack’s father.

“Let me...” while Jack was answered, Viktor immediately said.

“Why don’t he come with me, I will take him for a walk around this humble house.”

“Sounds a great idea, go with him Jack!” asked Jack’s father.

Evaluation

Jack had no choice but obey his father. All the way he walked with Viktor, Viktor told him about the house, about his family’s history, anything but seemed Jack didn’t listening to what Viktor said. Until Viktor questioned him a weird one, alongside Viktor’s room. In his room, it was full of books. Math, science, just ordinary books. But, beyond those ordinary books, there were some books but not rusty. Seemed like he often opened it.

“Do you believe in magic Jack?” asked Viktor so passionately.

“What? Magic? Not really, I more believe in my fist.” Jack answered.

“Ah yes, your beautiful martial arts.” Jack surprised, nobody knew about the martial arts that Zhao family inherits, because the martial arts only used for protect theirself.

“I know it Jack, there’s no need to surprised. But I confused, why your family inherit such a great things but just to be hidden? I know you Jack, you are so passionately, and I

“Jack, time to leave!” called his father, but when he wanted to say goodbye, Viktor was already gone, leaving Jack with weird expectation about his past.

Evaluation

The next day was a free time for Jack. All jack thought was just about the Viktor’s words. So he tried to go to DrinkyDave. DrknkyDave was a small café bar in a town called Night Town near Yangjilu village. DrinkyDave was a place full of crazy people, his father forbade Jack to got here but Jack still went there. It was so crowd, full of unknown people and then Jack met someone. A guy wearing full jacket so Jack can’t saw it clearly.

That guy told Jack that if Jack wanted to join the competition, Jack had to pass text that he had to win a fight against that guy. Without a haste Jack agreed. Unfortunately that guy was beyond strong that make Jack loss, that guy admitted jack’s power but gave him another test. The test was brought a wild boar from the forest. Jack went to the forest, he found the wild boar. But the wild boar was leading him into the gate. When Jack was about to opened the gate, someone showed up in front of him. A weird man with a black long clothes. That weird man knew everything about Jack as he talking to him. That weird man gave Jack a necklace that was placed on Jack’s hand, he said that “Noko” was something that can make jack strong. And then everything went black. When Jack woke up, he was already on his bed. The date showed like the date as he went to DrinkyDave. Jack thought it was a dream, so Jack went again to the DrinkyDave. There, Jack took the test. When Jack was fighting, the Noko shining up and make Jack stronger. He passed the test with flying colour. So he joined the competition. Jack won easily in that competition because of the Noko. He explained that he killed Jack's mother in order to gain a small power of the blues, as he already had full of yellow power. But he cannot achieved full power if he hadn't got the blade, so he forced Jack's father to tell where was the blade. Jack's father gave a piece of paper than split a granate out of his mouth. Day by day, I still struggle to control my power and make it bigger than before. Until that day, the day I could control it well. I was happy. Then, I thank to Ou who teaches me patiently. After that I lost control with him. I was going to tell my boyfriend, Peterr. I was happy when Peter and I will meet again. We went to a seafood restaurant and talk anything about my different characteristics, and I told him my entire story. Then he wants to say thank to Ou who teach me well. and our relationship is going on a certain age. Every day, he picked up and brought me to school. And now, my parents believed with Peter to safe me.

Not only my parents, but also Ou shocked with what he saw a minutes ago. I saw Ou held her hands and show an angry face, but I kept silent. After the party ended, Ou came to me and asked what my reason about Peter was kissed my cheek. And I just answered that Peter was my boyfriend and the ages of our relationship were 3 years, so I trusted him and he trusted me to safe each other. But Ou told that “Where is Peter when you cannot control your power? Where is Peter when you cry every day? Is Peter know about your condition in last year? Is Peter care with you, Alice? Or he just exploits your body, your beautiful face, your inner beauty?” Then I could not say anything. I realized that what Ou said was true.

Then I asked Ou, “What about you? Where are you in last year? Why you disappeared from my world? In last year, did you text me? No. Did you ask about my condition? No. I lost your contact, and I don’t know what should I do if I lost my control again.”

“So you text me if you need my help? So you just take the benefits of me? You are devil, Alice. I help you because I have a heart.” I did not answer his questions.

Then Peter came, I shocked. I hugged Peter in front of Ou. And I introduce Ou to Peter. Then Peter said, “Thanks Ou because your help, Alice can life normally. I am sorry I cannot visit your practice place because I do not know, and Alice asked me to wait for a long time.”

Hearing that, Alice and Ou did not say anymore. Then, Peter asked why we this condition was quiet. And I answered nothing happened. We were fine. Then Ou said, “Never mind Peter. It was my job. Do you know when Alice and I practiced every day, I felt something strange about our relation. I thought that I love her. And now, you came and make it disarray.

I answered, “What? Do you love me? I do not know anymore. Ou, I told you that I already have Peter since 3 years ago, and I still have the same feeling, and I cannot change my feeling. Please understand, Ou. You are just my teacher, and I am just your student.”

“I could understand your position, Alice. But you know that actually I could not teach you, because my palace banned me to have connection with human like you. But I break it, to safe you and I can do anything, although after that my granpa cage me for a year. And now actually, I still in my palace, but you called me in your dream last night. I victimized all of this for you and you give me a feedback like this. It is not fair. Did you know, actually my palace asked me to kill you first before you can control your power. Hearing that, I cried and Ou laughed very loud, he considered that he won the game. I tried to safe Peter with her power, but it was useless. Ou told me that he prepared this time to kill Peter and set his gun to make me could not made Peter alive, and I must leave my world and got married with him, but I deny it. I remembered that there only one method to make Peter alive, there was poison. Yes, I thought that I must make that poison. I said the magic formula to go to Indonesia for picked jasmine flowers, then I went to Netherland to picked tulip flowers, and the last I went to the Japan to picked Sakura flowers. And I went back to Canada, especially in Peter's home. I took a washbasin, stone, water and spoon. I putted the flowers into the washbasin, and pounded it well, and then I pour the water into it. I stir it well. And then, I opened Peter's mouth and feed the poison to Peter. I just prayed and waited. Then I heard voice, "Alice. Alice" I am so glad to hear that. Then I hugged him.

Peter asked, "Where is Ou? I wanted to kill him. By the way, how you can safe me and make me alive, Alice?" And I told him what I did to safe him, and Peter affected. He promised to kill Ou. And I said no. I told him that we could not kill him and let him free. Clearly, Peter said, "No. People like Ou must be killed. It will dangerous if we let him free." I could not say anything, because of Ou, I could control my power, but I did not want if Ou shades us in everywhere. So I said "Yes, I will follow your plan. But do not kill him. He helped me to control my power." And Peter said okay.

Resolution

Now, we were planning how to make Ou realized that he must stop his plan to killed Peter and forgot his obsession to be my boyfriend. First, when Ou and I practiced together, Ou said that his world has a library and I could visit there every time, but the libraries where only 'weird' people, it means that Peter could not visit there.

I visited the library in the morning and then I asked the librarian about the weakness of Ou's family and how to muffle his emotion. And the librarian said that the weakness of Ou's family was them hair. I said with myself in my heart, "Because of that when I asked him to cut his hair off, he deny it." And then the librarian said, "You must gave him the flower poison and make him drank it, so he is like day dream and will follow all of your caution." And then I said 'thank you' to the librarian and went back to met Peter.

In the next morning, I met Ou, and I said that I decided to leave Peter and got married with Ou. Ou laughed very loud. And I said, "but I have a rules, before we got married, I want you to cut your hair off because I love a man who have a sort hair." First, he denies it, and finally he accepted it.

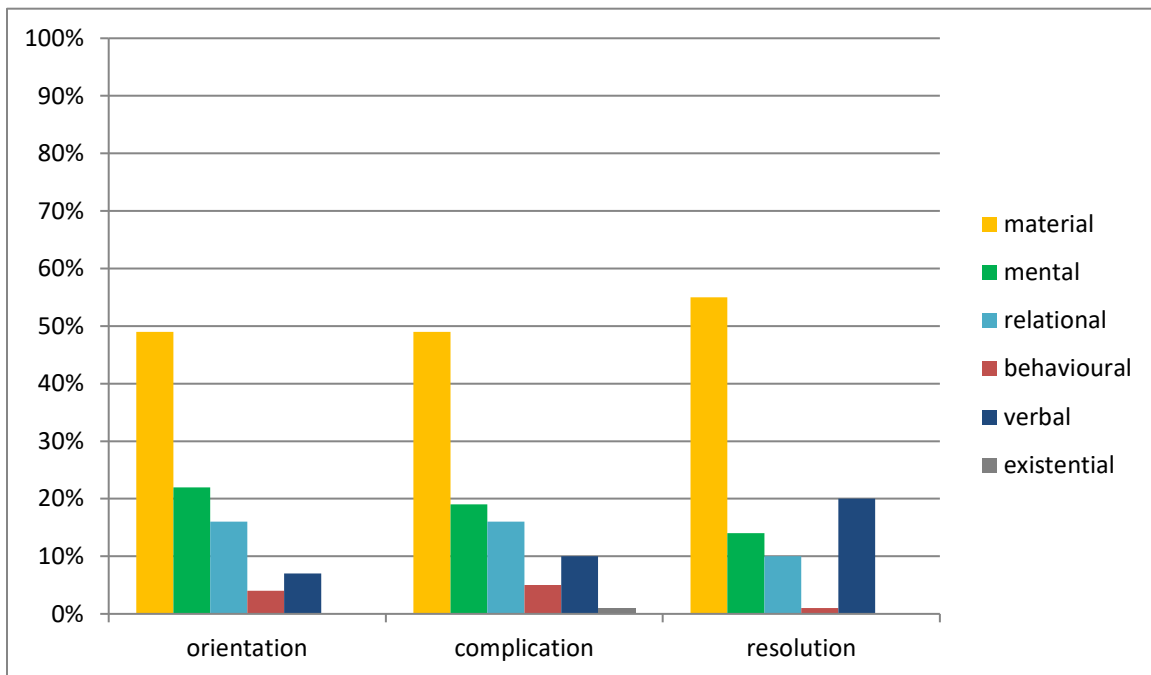

When day – a week Ou and I got married, I asked him about his promises. And he well did it now. Before he cut his hair odd, I make a drink with the flower poison in it. As a gift, asked him to drink it after he cut his hair off. And he accepted it.

He cut his hair off and then he drank the poison. After that, I asked him to forgot about Peter and I and let us free and did not be a killer, and he accepted it. After that, Peter and I went to the other country and got married in there. We have babies, all of them were beautiful acute girl and life happily ever after.

Lui Che, her husband, arrived in the house. He saw Sheun prepared to go out from home and he thought she would leave forever.

“Where have you been, huh? And now, where will you go?” he said to her and threw the bag on the floor.

“You who is caused me to go. Where have you been?!” she pushed Lui’s chest until make he almost fell. “Where are you when Donnie born?” I had to pay all the hospital cost and it was very hard to get money.” She cried. “Then, I saw you with another woman in the night.”

“Listen to me please. I was going with the woman, because she offered me to work in her house as security, I tried it, but it was not enough for us, moreover for you who always demand money.”

"Okay, go on Sheun! Find your happiness with the man who has much money! Go on and don't back anymore!"

Sharon came from school and she saw a bad condition in the house. Suddenly, she grabbed Sheun's bag.

"Mother don't go please! Who will take care of Han and Donnie?" Her face explained that she could not accept the next problem in her life.

Evaluation

"You, take care your brothers, Sharon..." She looked into Sharon's eyes. "Be brave and be kind," she smiled and took the bag from Sharon's hand.

"Father, what are you doing? Do you want to leave us too?" she even could say clearly.

"It's time to us to go."

"To where?"

"Your grandma, we will live there. But, in the small town. Do you want to?"

"You ever said that you are ashamed of your situation here. What will you say to people there?"

Lui Che hold her shoulders tightly. "It is different. I can't let Han and Donnie suffer. They need childhood. And I think there is the right place."

"Father, is the school good?" Sharon asked.

"Yeah, you're smart. You can go to the best school in the town."

"But, will my friend be kind to me?"

"I don't know, you just gotta strong Sharon. Don't overly emotional. Control yourself."

After the train arrived, they should go immediately to the grandma's house, because the day was almost over. The sun set with Sharon's sadness in the city. She already accepted for the new beginning that she did not know is that will be better or may be worst.

They arrived in the house where Lui grew. Seemed simplicity and peacefull were there.

"Mother Ling...", Ling knocked the door. He put the bag, because too tired in the day. He put Donnie on his back. While Sharon hold Han's hand.

"Hallo grand ma, are you at home?" Han's heard so tired.

They heard slow steps come closer to them behind the door. When Ling opened the door, Lui directly hug her.

He cried and said "I'm sorry, mother. I am so sorry. Forgive me for being a bad man."

“Take your children to the bedroom first. Common...” Ling accompanied them to the bedroom.

Complication

“Sleep on, you might be very tired.” Ling touched Sharon and Han slowly. When they were sleeping. Lui and Ling talked in the living room.

Ling started the conversation, “what on going on with you?”

“I am so sorry for my mistakes. I lied to you that I have a good profession there. I did not tell you that I married Sheun, the woman I met in the city. And I told you about it when Han was born.”

“It is not a problem for me. The past is past. And then, why did you lie to me?”

Evaluation

“At first, yes, I had stores there. But, it was bankrupt. The bank always come to asked money. Because I had a big, very big debt. And what a fool, I was force to be bad one.”

“I know...”

“You can live here. Accompany me and don’t leave this old woman alone...” Ling stood up from and leave for bed. Liu stood still in the living room with the light of lamp that was not so bright.

Minor Resolutions

“Aaaamm... it is so yummy,” Donnie had just eaten a bowl of soup.

“Sharon! Let’s eat together. You maybe did not imagine how delicious it is, hahaha...” said Han.

“I’ll eat later,” Sharon said.

"Father, this place is such a paradise," Sharon tool a deep breath in the fresh air.

"Seem you begin feel comfortable in this place," her father answered.

She saw a boy ride bicycle in front of their house. He was seem going to the school. Sharon was still standing and looking at him. Suddenly, she was startled because he looked at Sharon too.

"Hi!" the boy said to Sharon.

"Oh hi!" she was pretty shy to answer him.

She did not know why she felt happier when she meet him.

She was back to house and went to school immediately. She wished she can see him again.

In her new class, there were students who busy with their activity. Some students were studying, some other were playing smartphones, and the other were gathered to talk about anything, there was a boy playing guitar in the back corner of the class. “Oh yeah, thank you.”

The other students that were studying did not say anything to Sharon. They were afraid if Sharon would defeate their ranks. They were very competitive, they would not let Sharon feel comfortable to study there.

When the teacher came, Sharon was asked to introduce herself in front of the students.

Evaluation

“Good morning guys. My name is Sharon Yang. I move from Hwang Dong high school. I like to cook, so if you want to eat together, just come to my house and I will cook for you.”

“Why did you move to here? Whereas, Hwang Dong is better than this school!” a quite big boy using glasses asked her. He looked so individual.

“A..mm... I follow my father moved here and I chose this school because it is the best school in here.”

A girl asked her, “Sharon, do you want to be a member of cheer group? You are pretty and beautiful, just join us!”

The other students laughed at the girl.

“Thank you, but I am sorry, I don’t want.”

The boy in the morning who startled Sharon rised his hand, “Hi!”

“Hi,” Sharon answered.

The boy continued, “a Hwang Dong student, I challenge you in the Mathematic Olympiade next month.”

“Wow..” said the other students.

“What?”

"What's your name?" she asked flatty.

"Tan."

"Why do you challenge me instead these students that I think they are smart too?"

"Didn't you hear that I want you to prove to us?"

"Okay, thank you Tan for your challenge." She faked her smile to Tan.

"Ouh, no. I don't want there is a secret among our classmates."

"but, everyone has their own problem that they can't tell to anyone."

"Yeah, bit in here, we are different. So, just tell your problem and we will help you. Just tell to us."

"Hey, SHERan! You can't push her to tell." Tan said from his seat.

"Tan, what's going on with you? You never prevent me to do this," Sheeran began to curious with Tan. She liked him, but Tan always ignored her.

he understood Sharon. He knew, everybody has their own problem that could not be told.

Complication

One day, Sharon was quite happy to go to school. She went to school with Tan with his bicycle. In the school, she included to smart student, even she could defeat some smart students in her class. The smart students more hated her. So did Sheeran, the solidarity between Tan and Sharon made she want to embarrass Sharon.

Evaluation

When Sharon entered the classroom with Tan, Sheeran and her friends already stood in front of Sharon's seat. Sharon was very afraid if Sheeran would make a big problem with her. Sharon pretended to ignore them and went to sit on her seat. But, they obstructed her.

Sheeran said very close in front of Sharon face. "Hey, brave girl."

Sharon still looked calm, even she felt very threatened. "I want to sit."

"Hm, sit? Everyone, do you know why she could not tell us about her past?"

Strained situation in the class was very felted by Sharon.

Sheeran continued, "I know all about you know,"

"How the hell do you know about me?!" Sharon said hard.

"I can go to anywhere. Hwang Dong is near for me. I went there, even I know your house there. I know what your 'daddy' job was and I know where your 'mommy' is now."

"even I don't care about my mother. I tell you she is not my mother!"

"Oh yeah, you speak louder than me? Do you want me to speak louder than you?!"

"What you want to do to me? Tell to anyone?"

"Course" Sheeran said.

Climax of
Complication

Sheeran could not stop to tell anyone in the class about Sharon's past. Just tears that came streaming down her face. She felt so sad in that day, because her hope faded out. She thought there was no a new beginning, because everyone had being knowing about her. She did not know where was the best place to start a new life.

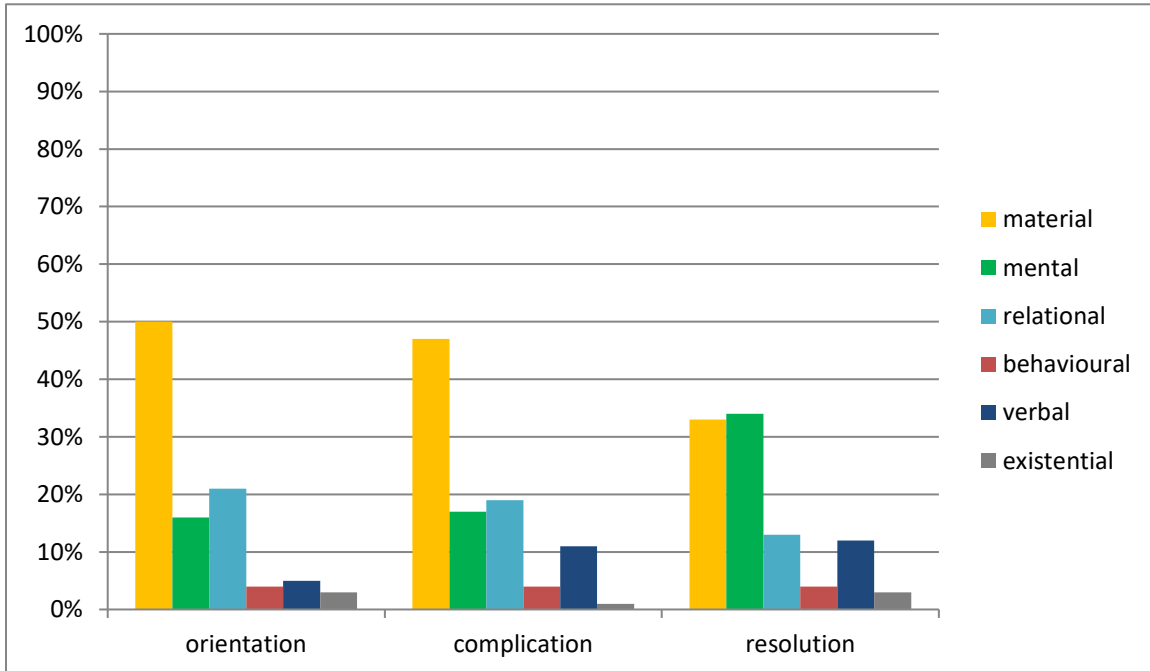

Main
Resolution

Everyone laughed at her and expelled her. Even nobody want to be with her, except Tan. He who still cared to Sharon. In a sunny day, Tan asked Sharon to study together like usually they did. But, this time, she did not want until the olympiade.

Sharon Yang, she expected to the world, but it flew away from her reach. She was being alone in bedroom. She just studied and isolated herself from world. She could not fall in love with anyone. She just wanted to change her life, because everywhere there were always people who will treat bad to her. It was like ascetism to get power to change her life in the future.

On the other side, there was a man named George, George Malkins. He's a farmer. He lived in a little wooden house in the middle of Tan forest. Tan forest was located far away from the capital city. George was short, old and dangerous. He has a lot of wrinkles in his face. He always brought his axe, everywhere he goes. He was a little bit crazy. Many people said that he kidnapped girls. Not only girls actually, he kidnapped everyone that entered the Tan forest.

My neighbors, Mr. Tom said, "I have a brother, and he was twenty years old that time. He loved hiking, and looking for abandoned places to find things. That day, he was searching for proof. He didn't believe it. He and his friend asked me to take them to Tan forest. I already tried to stop him from doing that, but he still want to go there. I took them to the Tan forest, they say that they will phone me if they need me. Until now, no call arrived. They're gone."

No one know who's George Malkins are. Somebody called Dawson has met him and made it to get out from Tan forest, said that he's nice. He's not like what is in your mind. He said that George invited him to drink tea. He also said that George has so may pets. George has a wife and a son too. But no one believed Dawson. They said that Dawson is lying. No one knows the truth.

I hear myth about Tan forest. They said that they way to get into the Tan forest was no easy. Tan forest has no easy way to get in. You have to struggle hard. People whose try to get in always gone. They never came back. They got in to reveal the truth, but they only add the mysteries. A man said, "If you get into Tan forest, you will never want to come back. Everything is beautiful there."

Everyone got confused and panic. No one could ever find Susan. I phoned her parents, they said Susan was not at home, she went to my house to do the group project. I told her parents about someone called my using Susan's phone, and about the strange voice. Her parent sounds depressed. "I'm sorry for that." I said. I never imagined that it would be like this. We just going to did our work, that's it. Everything was ruined. Her parent called the police to search immediately for their daughter. The police searched for her all over the city. But they couldn't find her.

Evaluation

The three of us Jess, Lucy and I fought. We blamed each other for letting her ride motorcycle alone. I blamed Jess, because I thought that it was her fault. She was supposed to picked her up that morning, but she didn't. Jess blamed Lucy. We fought at the police station. The police sent us out because we made a "disaster". I didn't know why our friendship broke like this. I couldn't think straight that time. I left them and went back to my house. I couldn't think straight that time. I tried to sleep, but I couldn't close my eyes. I kept thinking about Susan. The half of me wanted to decrease my ego, but the other half just hate them because they lamed me for everything.

I talked to my parent. They said to me, "do what you want to do. We will support you; always fight for the right thing." I cried. I couldn't think of another way. Tomorrow I had school.

Susan woke up in a strange place. This is not her house. It's so smelly, dark and weird. It has no windows. This house is made from wood, very small, and also dirty. She was laid in a bed. She had a headache; also backache that made her can't move anywhere. It seems like someone hit her in her back. She was thinking who is hit her back. She was afraid because there was no one to help her. She tried to get up from that bed and crawl to the front door, but she couldn't do that. She kept lay her body in the bed and thinking about the way out.

She got one idea. She spotted wheelchair in the corner of the room. And under the bed, there's a sword. She picked that sword and struggle to sit at the wheelchair. And she did it. She gets out from that room, with no help. When she almost reached the door, she heard something. It's like somebody opened the front door. She was afraid. Very afraid and she decided to go back.

Complication

I couldn't sleep last night. I met Lucy and Jess. We didn't talk to each other at class. It's just sad. The school bell rang, time to go home. I called Lucy and Jess. They seems like they didn't want to talk to me. "Hey, it's about Susan." I said to them angrily. We care about Susan, so we gathered up. "I think we should do something. There is no way we just going to sit, sleep, and do our activity like nothing happened. We should search for her. Are you with me?" they said, "Ok. But how can we find her?" We decided to search all over the city. I drove with Lucy and Jess.

Complication

I dove into Susan's house. We wanted to ask her parent, where Susan went before she went to my house. I didn't know is that a coincidence or not, her parent wanted to call us to help them search Susan. We got some information from her parents. Susan's parent said, before she went to my house, she wanted to buy some stationary at Artmed. Susan also said she want to buy snacks for her friends. "She only said that. After that, she immediately went to the outside." We were silent. Now we got places where to find her. We planned a plan.

"So this is our plan. We would go to Artmed first, and ask the cashier. We were going to explore around the store. If we can't find her, we will go search around every supermarket and minimarket in this city. We have to find Susan. She's our bestie, right?" okay, get ready, we will be a little dramatic right now. "One, two, three... FOR SUSAN!"

Minor
Resolution

Our adventure just begun. We search for her at Artmed, 115 Broadway street. I asked the cashier and every single worker in that store, but no one knows anything about Susan. They said that Susan wasn't come there that day. We were confused. We thanked the workers for that information. We phoned Susan's parents, gave them report. They grew more panicked. We continued our search for Susan. We're ahead to first supermarket at 3 Ghaut street, we still couldn't find her. Second supermarket... third supermarket... fourth... fifth, and every supermarket in town. We almost gave up. I said to them, "we couldn't find her. Where is she?" and Jess replied, "you can't just give up easily like that. Remember what you said to us? Susan is our bestie. Just don't give up, Nat." Lucy also said, "We will stay with you, no matter what, just don't give up, okay?"

Evaluation

"Okay." I replied. "Let's just go to my house and plan another way. This way of searching is useless, we will never find her if we go this way." "Okay, let's just go home." After that, we drove home. At my house, we tried to think of a new way. We thought in silence. After some time, I got an interesting idea. I immediately told my friend about it.

Foreshadow

"Hey guys, I got an idea. I think this is going to work." I told them the plans, and we started to do it.

...

Susan still had backache. That sound from the door got closer and closer. That thing sound like a little kid, ran to everyplace, but it made a big sound and it's moving so fast. Maybe one of his steps can kill a snake. She spotted something passed the door, but she couldn't see that thing clearly, because the room is too dark. After that, someone stood at the door and kept looking at her. Again she couldn't see that thing. She remains calm and did nothing. A little more, and her backache has gone. She didn't hear that sound again. She got up and walked quietly to the door. She reached the living room, and then she heard that sound again. She ran to the front door, and she could hear the steps tried to chase her. She ran as fast as she can. Her foot stumbled by a little rock, and she feel down. She fell down into a cliff. She couldn't do anything, "Argh, my hand! I think I'm just going to give up, I have nothing to do right now. No friends, no family, and my stomach getting hungry and thirsty, what should I do?" She grumbled. She wake up, and she was shocked by what she saw. Her mouth was opened for a long time. She never saw anything like this. She surprised by a sound.

Lucy, Jess and I downloaded an application in our phone that can track the other's position by their phone position. We tried to open that, and use that application to track Susan's position. We opened the application, loading... and we type her Facebook account. After we finished filling all information that's needed, we wait, and this application will track it. First trial, it won't work. This application said that her phone is out of the provider service. We tried it again and again until it gave us place. We were very surprised. We didn't imagine that result can be like that. We hugged each other. It said that Susan's phone location was in Tan forest.

Evaluation

"NO way, no... no... no... this is impossible!" I said, "What? I already told her to take another way, not on the Tan forest." Lucy replied. "How can we going to find her? I'm afraid to get in there." Jess also gave her opinion. We were confused. I talked to them, "Guys, you said that no matter what happen we will always stay together, right? We don't have to be afraid of something. Everything is possible when I'm with you, guys. We have to trust each other. At the beginning, I was afraid too. But now, I'm not afraid anymore remembering my best friend stuck in there. We brave because we need to, guys. Let's go to the Tan forest tomorrow. This night, we talk to our parents about the plan. I wish they say yes."

That night, they faced their parents. That was the worst moment of their life. We talked to our parent with a big anxiety. Maybe you already knew what our parents will say, hahaha.

"Mom, dad, I want to ask for permission. I... I... want to... we want to..." I couldn't say that. My tongue was freeze. "Want what?" Mom replied. "This morning, we tried to track Susan's phone. And..." I tried to explain the problem. "We tried so many times, but it kept says that Susan's phone is out of the provider signal. That happened

"WELCOME TO T—R—AL TAN FOREST," a sign said. Susan surprised with a sound. She saw a tall white rabbit, that wears a suit and trousers, looked at her this time. "Hello" Before the rabbit continued its words, Susan already screamed, "Sshhhh, calm down, miss. I'm dodo. I'm the alpha of Tan forest's guard. Who are you?" He introduced himself to Susan. "Uhn, okay, first, you can talk too? It's a little bit weird for me. I am Susan, what is this place? And what's that sign try to say?" she replied with so many questions. "Okay, I will tell you, miss. Yes, I can talk. This is the center of Tan forest. Let's get in. I have many things to show you." Susan immediately replied, "Mr. Dodo, I'd love to, but I need to go back to the city. I left my family and my friends there. Maybe you can show me a way to come back?" "This is not the right time, Susan. Try that later." Mr. Dodo said. Mr. Dodo brought her in to the center of Tan forest.

No one from Lucy, Jess and I got the permission. But with bravery, we went to the Tan forest. When we arrived at the tan forest, we prayed first. Jess said, "whatever happens next, I'll always remember you guys, I love you." I said to her, "Don't say things like that, no one's gonna die. The most important thing is we need to stay together." After that, we entered the Tan forest. Tan forest was very dark, we lightened our flash light and started to explore. Last night, I already searched about Tan forest on the

That was the happiest moment of my life. Mr. Dodo smiled, and said to us, “You are reunited now, congratulation. This is the time Susan. You have to go back to your world.” Thank you very much Mr. Dodo. Thank you for helping my friends avoiding George Malkins’ house. If there are no you, may be they will experience the same things as me. Thank you very much.” We all thanked Mr Dodo. “Okay, now everyone close your eyes. No one will remember anything about this world. You will back to your world, and wake up like its 8 in the morning. You will not remember anything about this world.” After he said that, our body change forms into glitters. We didn’t feel anything. “Goodbye Mr. Dodo, thanks for everything.” We said.

“Ugh, I’m so sleepy.” I said. I woke up in my room, with Jess, Lucy and Susan sleeping beside me. I didn’t know why our body felt like I’ve ran 100 kilometers long. I stretched, and look at the clock, it is 8 in the morning. Not long from that, my besties woke up. They felt the same way with me. My mom entered the room. “Hey, are you awake? You fell asleep yesterday afternoon. Lets’ go downstairs, breakfast is ready.” “Okay mom,” we replied.

Jess said, “Hey, guys, I dreamed about meeting a very weird rabbit named Mr, Dodo.” All of us replied, “I think we had a same dream. Hahahaha...” We laughed and went downstairs to eat our breakfast and started out life again.

Getting to Know A Ninja (Text 6)

Orientation

Ninjas, I thought they never exist before I met Cara. The blonde one, I think. I used to play with her in my childhood time, well before High School started to tore us apart. She moved to a new house next to mine, then she became my neighbor, and later became my best friend. Cycling, swimming, and running until one of us collapse is our nature's call, Cara is always a good friend to spend the time with yet bad friend because she can get you in "Dead-is-close-to-you" situation.

Main Characters introduced

The first day I met her is like a heaven for me, we were on the same age, I remember her straight blonde hair popped from the car's window. Her family screamed to her to put her head in but she was just laughing, that moment got me dazzled in the frontyard, she smirked at me before she put her head in, left me with thumping heart and I already got a crush on her on the first sight. But the days after it, hell stroke in, because the damn thing is I started to realize Cara's inner Ninja skill.

Background information

The first time I realized it is when Cara and I cycled together, then we passed an abandoned house not far from our destination, the playground. Suddenly, Cara stopped her bike and made me stopped mine too, "Wow" she said, "What?" I asked her "That is what 'wow' means dumbass" she answered shortly "Don't call me dumbass" grumbled me.

Foreshadow

Cara jumped from her bike and started to climb the fence, I was really surprised and shouted to her "Cara? What are you doing?", "I'm trying to climb this fence, mind to help?" She answered without looking back at me, "You are insane, Cara" I jumped from my bike and pulled her leg, "Asa! Stop pulling me!" Cara shouted, she tried to find a grasp but I pulled her leg too hard so she fell over me.

We screamed and my body got thumped to the ground, Cara stood up and helped me to stand up "Asa, are you okay?", I took her hand and answered her shortly "Fine.", "You shouldn't have pulled me before" said Cara, "You are the one who shouldn't have climbed that fence!" I can't believe what her said. "I'm just trying to get in" she raised her eyebrows, "That means trespassing, we can't do that Cara that is illegal!" I tried to calm down, "but I really want to get in" she looked to the house again, "What is special with an abandoned-covered-with-moss-and-broken house" teased me, "I don't know... I just want to stroll in.. and check if it is haunted" Cara said without looking back at me again. What she said got me goosebumps and made me fastly said "You know what? forget it, let's go home" I pulled her hands but Cara still looked back at that house several times.

The night came, I was going to sleep when I heard a knock on my window, I checked it and I was really surprised Cara was outside! I opened it in rush and said to Cara "What the hell are you doing!? It's bed time Cara!" I looked outside and thinking how Cara climbed to the 2nd floor, "Shuushh!!!" she hushed me and sat on my window "Hey, Asa I knew some informations about the house we passed on the road today! It was manufactured in 19th Century, and Powell family lived there generation-over-generation until the only daughter they had died, her name is Clara, and she was died on winter in 1990 because of fever, Clara had a cottage beside the lighthouse of Western Bay not far from here, do you want to come?" Cara told me all those things very fast, I swallowed her words in amaze and I can't give any words to her. "Earth to Asa, won't you accompany me captain?" asked Cara and rolled her grey eyes.

"How did you know about all of that informations?" I asked her back, "I did a little research" she raised her shoulders, "Wait... do you mean 'trespassing' is one of the research?" I answered, she chuckled and gave me a smile "sort of, but that is not important, Asa. We have to go to the cottage like... right now." said her, "What? no.. Cara.. Don't, this is crazy, first you trespassed an abandoned house alone, and now you are going to do it again at night. It's dangerous, I'm not in" I muttered.

Cara stopped her smile, she gave me a sharp sight which shattered my heart. “Well, okay then if you’re not in. Lonely adventures? Why not, right” she said shortly. I pulled her hands and gave her a warning sign from my eyes, “It’s not like that, we’re just children.. It’s dangerous Cara, don’t do this.” I warned her. She rolled her eyes again but she smiled a bit, “I’m a pro, stiff. Go to sleep” she said and hopped out from my window. Her face looked really beautiful with background of dark night sky, she looked at me again and said “If you tell my parents about this, I will kill you.” She smirked then hopped to the tree near the balcony and climbed down. I was really amazed about everything that I had today so I just looked at her until she was gone in the shadow.

Since that day, Cara always asked me to accompany me to her adventures. I knew we can grow really close because of playing together and I liked her really much but this thing can put me in danger, so I declined her offer. Later, she looked for new adventures just by herself, and it’s like a daily activity to me if she always went to nowhere in exact time when I’m going to sleep. When I checked out the window, I can see her hopped out from her bedroom’s window, and when we made an eye contact she made a gesture of ‘zipping her mouth’ which meant I have to keep it a secret. I felt dumb because I always missed this thing.

Well, time flew and we’re just getting far apart until High School stroke.

She was in the “cool dudes” and I was in the geeky one, so I’m pretty sure that every one at school would get a heart attack if I told them that I and Cara were best friends in childhood time. In the morning when I’m going to school, I can see her with her friends, the coolest kids at school. So many guys asked her to be their girlfriend, but Cara always left them all, even with Rick. Rick is one of the coolest guy in my school, he is the basketball’s captain and every girl’s portrait of boyfriend. One day, Rick parked his car in front of Cara’s house and waited for Cara to come out, when Cara opened the door and walked to her car Rick shouted “Hey Cara, want to take a ride?” and gave her a smile which every girl would kill to get it. Cara just gave her a poker face and said “no thanks” and got in her car. That thing was really majestic because I can see Rick’s face was like “I-got-slapped” and it’s my first time to see Rick got a decline from a girl, and that is why Cara is special to every person. What is hurtful is because me and Cara doesn’t talk anymore even if our house is really close.

If I passed in front of her, she doesn’t even give me a sight. Sometimes I miss the old her and I found me recalling the memories when we used to play together every single day. Knowing her is like a miracle for me, I have never met a person so different to the other, it feels like I have known her since the 19th century, but the truth is I only know a little about her life. “Lonely adventures. Why not, right?” Cara’s voice always got in my head every time I saw her blonde hair, how I wish she know my feelings to her is not changed at all, ugh.

But anyways I got new best friends though, they are Charlie and Logan. We made a small community of geeky stuffs. Charlie is the only one who has girlfriend among us, he is handsome and really obsessed with vampires. I spend my time mostly with Logan, the only human who knows my feelings towards Cara, he is a vegetarian and always wear a shirt with alien thing on it, no matter if it’s words about aliens nor picts.

It was lunch time when Logan gave me a quick punch at my shoulder, “Hey dude sit here” he smiled, “Yo” I smiled back and sat next to him. I put my lunch on the desk when the conversations starts to flow, “How is your day?” asked Logan, “Not really miserable, yours?” I answered and started to munch my bread, “Just the same” he said again and ate his salad. Then he started to talk about geeky stuffs but our conversations stopped when he started about aliens, I teased him “Logan, are you really going to talk about slime alien when I’m eating?”, he raised his eyebrows reminding me to Cara’s gestures “Why not” he answered. “What? Stop looking at me that way, Sir. You look like falling in love with my personality” he joked.

Complication

“What.. no—it’s just It reminding me of Cara when you raise you eyebrows” I muttered, “Hmmm, so you’re still having a crush to her?” Logan asked me, “Well, sort of” I answered. He chuckled and started to play with his broccoli “Well, no wonder Cara is flawless for you” he laughed, I answered “She is not flawless, she is different. Mysterious yet cool, like a ninja” but suddenly he looked surprised and recognized something, “Hey, talking about your ninja, she is missing again” said Logan.

Evaluation

“What do you mean with ‘she is missing again’? I don’t get it” I felt confused.

He answered again “Well, I didnt’t she her today at class at all, and I bet you didn’t see her this morning right?”, I realized it and said “well... no I didn’t but what do you mean by missing again?”, “Do you forget it already, dumbass? It’s the third time she does it, the first time she did it she was missing 2 days, the second time? 5 days without her existence. And this is the third time” he said. I laughed, of course I didn’t forget it.

How could I forget about her family rushed to my house asked me and my family about where-is-Cara-has-gone, her parents was really panicked and already called the cops. But even the cops can’t find her at all, she is a true ninja at heart, I thought.

“I wonder where she is right now?” I muttered, “Who knows?” Logan ate his broccoli, “You’re the one who should’ve known where she is right now?” he continued, “Why me?” I looked at my spoon who reflected myself, “I don’t know, you’re the one who really knows her? Well, not really ‘knows’ but at least you got a little chemistry when you and Cara were children, hahah” Logan chuckled. I smiled and just finished my lunch.

When I got back home, the situation is like what I guessed at school. Cara’s parents was at my house, I got in and I was putting off my sneakers when Cara’s mom, Mrs. Taylor stroke in like a tornado and asked me if-I-met-Cara-at-school, “Sorry, Mrs. Taylor. But I didn’t meet Cara at all today..” I answered politely but my mind was thinking where the hell is Cara right now. "Are you certain, Asa? Please, she must be at the literature class all day long, she really likes to read those literature books everyday, right Asa?" Mrs. Taylor looked like really worried, got me felt a bit angry to Cara who made her own mom got worried about her existence. "Yes that is true Mrs. Taylor, Cara really likes to read and really loves literature since we were kids, but I'm certain she didn't go to school because her own classmate and my bestfriend too, Logan, he told me that Cara didn't go to school today since the morning" I answered calmly, "She will come back, Taylor. She is 17, she can take care of herself, the last time she was missing in 5 days, but later she came back. She didn't go to school today that's all, maybe tomorrows she will come" Cara's father, Mr. Hendrick answered me. What Mr. Hendrick said got me chuckled, but I thought it was not funny at all for his wife. Mrs. Taylor gave him sharp look and said "It's already a week, she never came back to home. Maybe you should start taking care of your children, sir" and Mrs. Taylor left the living room and got out from my house, my parents looked at me with confused look and we were having an awkward silence with Mr. Hendrick until Mr. Hendrick opened his mouth and said "Well, I think I have to call the cops". Then he got out from our house too

Wow, I was really surprised that Cara didn't come home for a week, even though she came to school before, maybe that's why her car never parked next to the fountain in her frontyard. 'Where are you right now, Cara?'

The night, I can't sleep at all, I was really curious about Cara, she has never been missing in a really long time, it must be serious... I checked the clock on the wall and realized it was already midnight. I stood up from my bed and tried to think, Cara always go to her adventures alone because of me..... Suddenly a thought passed on my mind.

It's almost impossible and insane but I have a weird feeling that Cara is at the abandoned house near the playground, a thought about that house already got me chills but it's for Cara.. I knew that she could be anywhere but I decided to give it a try.

I took my car's key and the flashlight, then put on my jacket and jeans to cover my pyjamas. Now it's time to be Cara, I opened my bedroom's window and hopped out to the attic. Outside, the night breeze stroke my skin, I closed the window and jumped to our apple tree and held the branch. I started to climb down without any noises and touched the ground with perfect manner. It was really cold so I ran to my car and got in, later I found myself drove to that abandoned house.

Evaluation

I can't believe it... My heart was beating really fast until I didn't realize I have arrived. I got out from my car and stood in front of that house. If Cara is brave, so do I. Be a ninja dude I gave some motivations to myself to forget all of the negative things who passed my mind, but it's really hard to keep a good mind when it was midnight and you were going to get in an 'abandoned-and-maybe-haunted' house.

I took a deep breath and started to climb the fence, It is not really hard I put it on my mind meanwhile I climbed down. When I already got in on the frontyard, I crossed the frontyard fastly to prevent my inner coward trait took advantage. I held the doorknob and pulled it open, inside the house was felt damp and really dark so I turned on the flashlight. I started to walk again over the ballroom, I could see there was a big painting of family portrait and on the left bottom corner of the pict there were words "Powell Family". Cara was right.. I decided to take stairs to the 2nd floor, the wood was creaked when I stepped on it but I just grasped my flashlight tightly and keep walking.

There were some room on the 2nd floor but I decided to take the first room on my right, from what I saw this room was belong to a girl. The wall used to covered with pink wallpaper before some of the wallpaper got torn, there was bed, a desk, a bookshelf full of books, and a shelf. There was a photo on the desk and 'Clara' words on the left bottom corner of the photo.

I walked to the bookshelf and checked the books, I was surprised that every book there were Cara's . I picked a book that Cara used to read in my childhood, 'The Pageant and the Hunter' by Anne Jangirey, I opened the book when suddenly all of the lights in the house turned on, I could hear the door was being opened and the sound of the wood stairs creaked when it's being stepped on. I was really freaked out until I thought I was going to scream.

Evaluation

Darn it, what if it is a robber!? I turned off my flashlight and pulled myself behind the bookshelf in hurry. The sound was getting closer and closer and suddenly— a glimpse of blonde hair got in the room, I peeked and saw Cara opened her coat and put it on the desk, I muttered "Cara?", Cara looked back and screamed a little "OH MY GOD WHAT ARE YOU DOING!? YOU ALMOST GAVE ME A HEART ATTACK!!" Cara yelled and her face went pale in a sudden, "SHHHH!!" I hushed her and got out from behind the bookshelf, Cara put her hands covered her mouth and her face looked like she can't believe that it was me.

"I was looking for you" I smiled. Cara pulled her hands back but her face went angry, "Did my parents send you?" she asked me with sharp tone. "They asked me where are you but I don't even know where you were, I can't stop thinking of you because it's been a week since you've gone." I tried to explain.

Cara's face went warm again and in a sudden she ran to me and hugged me, I was really surprised but I hugged her back and she cried in my arms, left me with so many emotions.

Resolution

I hugged Cara in a long time because she didn't stop crying, when she stopped we sat on the bed, "I thought you were ghost" she chuckled, "I thought you were a robber" and we busted in laughs. "How did you know I'm here?" she smiled, I raised my shoulder and rolled my eyes copied her gestures and Cara laughed. There was a sweet silence before Cara said, "It's been a long time since our adventure" I looked deeply at the floor, "Yeah, I used to be a coward and it's been years we didn't play together" I muttered. Cara looked at the room and said "This place is like an escape for me every bad thing stroke me, I spent some days here or at the cottage to fresh my mind", I looked at her and smiled, she looked at me and suddenly we got a deep eye contact, “Where are you after all this time?” she asked, “What?” I answered. “You declined my offer to the adventure, and that was okay, but not saying hi at school? That is rude, Asa” she chuckled, “What? you’re the one who didn’t even bat your eye on me when I passed in front of you! You always with your cool friends and the jocks so how come a nerd like me saying hi to you?” I felt a bit angry when she said that. Cara rolled her eyes and answered “That is because I’ve waited you to say hi for me dumbass, how come you didn’t even realize my feelings towards you since we were—“ Cara stopped talking and her face turned red, even if she didn’t finish her words, I got what she meant. There was the next silence, and this time Cara’s voice was unstable when she said “My parents are going to split up, Asa... I’m going to live with Mom and my little sister going to live with Dad...” she started to cry again “T— That’s why I really hate being home, since from I was kid..... They always yelled at each other, fighting.... screaming. I’m really sick of those things so I go to new places to find solitude”, I was really surprised of what Cara said, all of my bad thoughts of her, all of my point of views, all of my judgements towards her crushed down. I put my left arm around her shoulder and she cried on my shoulder, “I don’t want to go home, Asa. Please don’t take me home”.

I stroke her soft hair and said, “Your mother really worried about you, Cara. Don’t be like this” I continued, “Hey, do you remember? You once said to me ‘Lonely adventures. Why not, right?’, from now on I will accompany you on your next adventures, I promise you will never going past this alone. But for now, please go home.”.

That night, I drove with Cara to home, along the road, we kept holding on each other’s hand. I helped Cara to climb to her window and when she looked at me she smiled, her face was still beautiful even when tears poured on her cheeks. “Say hi to me at school tomorrow, lad?” she said. I laughed and answered, “Aye aye captain”. We both laughed and Cara closed her window, I looked at her bedroom for the last time and walked to my house. Tomorrow headline to Logan: Getting to know A Ninja.
