

PENGELOLAAN EKSTRAKURIKULER PASKIBRADI SEKOLAH MENENGAH ATAS NEGERI SE- KOTA SERANG

Tubagus Mochamad Furqon
NIM. 06101241008

This study aims to describe the planning, implementation, and evaluation of Paskibra extracurricular activities in all of Serang Senior High Schools (SMA N),

This research is descriptive quantitative research. The study also included the population study, since the whole Paskibra units which are located in Senior High School in Kota Serang have been studied. The units of analysis in this study were Paskibra units in Senior High School which are located throughout Kota Serang. Respondents in this study are the students who take charge of the Paskibra extracurricular. The object of this research is Paskibra extracurricular management which includes planning, implementation and evaluation of Paskibra extracurricular activities. Research instrument in this study is the guidance (check list and an open question), documents guidance and accurate observation guidelines. The data analysis technique in this research is quantitative data analysis using statistical percentage.

The results of this study show that: (1) The planning of Paskibra extracurricular activities in high schools as Serang City is good enough category with the percentage of 71.18%, (2) the implementation of Paskibra extracurricular activities in high schools as Serang City is in good enough category with the percentage of 72.22%, and (3) the evaluation of Paskibra extracurricular activities in high schools as Serang City is in the good enough category with the percentage 62.85%.

Words Key: extracurricular management, Paskibra, the city of Serang