

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION

In this chapter, the researcher presents conclusion and suggestion based on the research finding and discussion in the previous chapter. The conclusion relates to the content of Fifty Shades of Grey and The Notebook and the suggestion relates to the readers and other researcher.

A. Conclusion

From the previous chapter discussion above, the researcher describes several points to make it as a conclusion from the results of the research that has been conducted. The conclusions are as follows:

1. The novel Fifty Shades of Grey has two main characters namely Christian Grey as the protagonist, Anastasia Rose Steele as the antagonist. In the novel Fifty Shades of Grey, Christian is a much closed person. The characterization that Christian has as follows hard work, sadist, reserved, jealous, discipline, intimidate and dominant. The characterization that Ana has as follows emotional, sensual, naive and blushful. In the novel The Notebook has two main characters also namely Noah Calhoun as the protagonist, Allie Nelson as the antagonist. In the novel The Notebook, Noah is a good boy that very hard working and falling deeper in love with Allie. The characterization that Noah has as follows hard work, religious, kind, and patient. The characterization that Allie has as follows honest, talented, and strong woman.

2. In this novel is described that the main character's love based on the novel Fifty Shades of Grey and The Notebook. There are many type of the main character love such as liking, infatuated love, empty love, romantic love, companionate love, fatuous love, and consummate love.
3. In this novel is described that the main character's faithfulness based on the novel Fifty Shades of Grey and The Notebook. There are many type of the main character faithfulness such as faithfulness in relationships, faithfulness in higher power, and faithfulness to oneself.
4. From the entire contents of the story, Fifty Shades of Grey and The Notebook are good novels, this is evidenced from the themes raised namely the struggle of love and faithfulness, try and work hard. The scheme begins with the story of the characters with a variety of problem, after that the conflict arises until it reaches climax and then at the end of a touching story. Complete with the selection of language, words, sentence forms and metaphors that are fairly neat. In terms of social context, the author concludes that the novel was made as an idea that became the message or the author's message for the reader.

B. Implication

Based on the results of this research, there are several implications that were obtained. The findings of this research are useful for some fields of study such as literature and English language education. The researcher hopes that this research will enrich the knowledge and can be used as one of the good references for the reader and the next researcher who wants to do research in a similar issue.

C. Suggestion

Based on the result in analysis of t Fifty Shades of Grey and The Notebook the researcher has some suggestions as follows:

1. Reading a novel is a pleasant and enjoyment. It will enrich reader's vocabulary, increase the knowledge, broader the mastery of language, and take the moral values from the novel.
2. The readers can study Fifty Shades of Grey and The Notebook deeper by using different kinds of method.
3. The other researcher can use this thesis as a supporting reference in analyzing the other novels.
4. It is suggested for other researchers to analyze others novel written by E.L James and Nicholas Sparks. That research will bring them to the better understanding of those novels and the author.